

Code of Conduct

Parents

- Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
- Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Encourage children to always play according to the rules and settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skilful plays by all participants.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Show appreciation and respect for volunteer coaches and umpires without them your child could not participate and encourage players to do the same.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background, or religion.
- Call your coach or team manager if your child is unable to attend training or a game.
